

EMERGING COMPOSERS COMPETITION

ALL AGES | DEADLINE: 04/05/25

MULTIPLE WINNERS WITH MONETARY AND IN-KIND PRIZES

The Jâca Emerging Composers Competition is an initiative that commissions new works for the Clarinet and Guitar from emerging composers worldwide. Selected composers will work directly with Jâca in a collaborative process culminating in wide-spread exposure of their works.

Details: No age restriction. Submit an original single or multi-movement work for Bb clarinet and guitar, 5 - 12 minutes in length (music can be drawn from source material). Applicants are encouraged to review Jâca's body of work via recordings, video, and social media for inspiration.

Submissions will be judged on the following criteria: 1) Idiomatic writing for both instruments, 2) influenced by the diverse musical heritage of either/both instruments, 3) fits within the style of a Jâca program (see recordings).

Composers are encouraged to contact Jâca at any point with questions prior to submission.

Prizes: 1st place winner receives $500 prize, a premiere performance, and publication on Jâca's database and online store. 2nd place winner receives $200 and in-kind prizes above. 3rd place winner receives honorable mention on press-releases and the option of publication.

Deadline: April 5, 2025

Application Fee: $25.00
